

Q.1. Correct the following sentences:-

- I. One of these children are quite sick.
- II. Not only I but he also have to suffer for the failure.
- III. Everyone in the crowd were given charity.
- IV. The fleet were scared to face the sea pirates.
- V. Fish and rice are a popular dish in the coastal areas.

Q.2. Fill in the blanks with correct adverbs:-

- I. The minister listened _____ to the grievances of the villagers.
- II. Pt. JawaharLal Nehru is _____ called 'Chacha Nehru' by the children of India.
- III. This auditorium is spacious _____.
- IV. MeeraBai worshipped Lord Krishna _____.
- V. The boss was _____ impressed with his devotion and hard work.

Q.3. Use the appropriate prepositions in the following sentences:-

- I. The rat is afraid with/of the cat.
- II. We congratulated him for/on his birthday.
- III. I have a great regard in/for my teacher.
- IV. I prefer coffee to/than tea.
- V. There is no student at/in the classroom.

Q.4. Select the appropriate words from brackets and fill in the blanks:-

- I. My _____ doesn't allow me to tell lies. (conscience / conscious)
- II. One has to _____ life as it is. (except/accept)
- III. Please don't moan and _____ about the assignment. (grown/groan)
- IV. Did you get a _____ for winning the debate? (medal/meddle)
- V. Vowels are the _____ of a language (sole/ soul).

Q.5. Fill in the blanks with correct form of the verbs:-

Our school _____ (organize) the World Literacy Day on 9th August. The motive of the Day _____ (be) to create awareness among the literates to teach the illiterates. In India, there _____ (be) so many uneducated people, although much _____ (do) for the spread of education after independence by opening institutions in large numbers. They _____ (do) not know how to read and write. We should all spare an hour to teach them. The State Education Minister _____ (be) the Chief Guest who _____ (highlight) the problems faced by these illiterate people. The Dramatic Club of the school _____ (stage) a skit highlighting the need of literacy. The minister also _____ (urge) the students to spare some time for the uneducated. Our school students _____ (take) a pledge to teach all the illiterates surrounding their areas.